I'm a passionate developer skilled in the MERN/FULL Stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, and Node.js). I enjoy building scalable and user-friendly applications, leveraging my expertise in both frontend and backend development. I'm eager to apply my skills and contribute to innovative projects while expanding my knowledge in a dynamic team environment. Just developing my knowledge onto deep aspects of development. Will be eager to learn more as I have quite a knack for learning new things.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, in Software Engineering, University of Management and Technology

All examinations successfully completed and currently finalizing remaining degree requirements, with graduation expected in June 2026. Fully available and ready to begin my professional career

FINAL CGPA: 3.17

- Built a strong grasp of Object Oriented Programming(OOPS) concepts and efficient Data Structures implementation.
